BESKRIVNING

The curriculum contains five sections and has been adopted by the government. The first section, Fundamental values and tasks of the school, applies to the compulsory school, preschool class and school-age education. The second section, Overall goals and guidelines, applies to the compulsory school and, apart from the content about grading, to the preschool class and school-age education. The third section applies to the pre-school class. The fourth section to school-age education. The fifth section containing syllabuses applies to the compulsory school.
